PUBLIC SERVICE

FACT SHEET AND FUNDING
POLICY

A. Introduction

Welcome to the City of Green Bay's Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program FY 2016 Request for Proposal (RFP). The City of Green Bay receives a Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) annually from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to fund activities that primarily benefit low- and moderate-income (LMI) residents of Green Bay. These funds are based on a formula for entitled cities and counties.

The City of Green Bay is using a competitive application process to make a portion of its CDBG funds available to non-profit groups in the form of public service grants. Eligible public service activities include, but are not limited to, programs concerned with housing, employment, crime prevention, child care, health care, drug abuse prevention, education, mental health, welfare, or recreation.

Because the legitimate needs of Green Bay's low and moderate income population exceeds full funding available, this is a very competitive process. Organizations may submit only one application for funding. If two or more organizations collaborate, the partnership represents the nonprofit's only opportunity to apply.

B. Background on Federal Funding Sources

To help potential applicants determine whether or not their project might be eligible for a public service grant, it is important to be familiar with the basic requirements of the Community Development Block Grant Program (CDBG), the Federal program that provides the funding for the grants. Potential applicants should also review the contractual requirements they will be expected to meet if they are selected for Federal funding.

CDBG Program

The CDBG program provides the City of Green Bay with the opportunity to develop viable communities by funding activities that provide decent housing, suitable living environments, and by expanding economic opportunities, principally for low- and moderate-income persons. Funds may be used to carry out a wide range of community development activities such as neighborhood revitalization, economic development, and improved community facilities and services.

CDBG National Objectives

For the purposes of this funding opportunity, Federal legislation and regulations have established national objectives that all CDBG funded activities must meet. The City must assure that all activities meet one of these three national objectives of the program. Each activity must: 1) benefit people with low- and moderate-incomes (LMIs); and/or 2) aid in the prevention of slums and blight; and/or 3) meet community development needs having a particular urgency. Activities that do not meet one of these three broad national objectives cannot be undertaken with CDBG funds.

- Low and Moderate. Income Benefit: Generally, public service activities meet the first requirement - benefit to LMI persons. For an activity to meet this objective, it must either have income eligibility requirements that limit the activity's benefits to LMI persons, or the activity must be located in and serve an area that is predominantly inhabited by LMI residents. (A map of the CDBG eligible areas is attached). Under the CDBG regulations, programs that serve the elderly or persons with disabilities are usually considered to benefit low- and moderate-income persons. The income limits that determine who is considered to have a low- and moderate-income are attached. (Exhibit 1)

To meet this objective, each public service activity must serve no less than 51 percent LMI persons (although the City reserves the right to require that each activity serve a greater percentage of LMI persons). The applicable percentage will be determined at the time a grantee's contract is drafted, but applicants should plan to meet the highest number of LMI persons possible.

It is imperative that applicants anticipate and plan for the methods they will use to determine and document the incomes of the persons that they serve through their CDBG funded activities. Failure to adequately document client data may result in cancellation of any monies awarded.

- Slums and Blight: For an activity to meet the second objective, it must be designed to address and eliminate the conditions causing the slums and blight. The City determines which areas qualify under removal of slums and blight. It is rare for an application to be funded under this objective.
- Urgent Community Development Needs: For an activity to meet the third objective, it must meet the following criteria: 1) a situation must pose a serious and immediate threat to the health or welfare of the community, 2) it is of recent origin or recently became urgent and 3) it is unable to be corrected with other sources of funds. It is rare for an application to be funded under this objective.

In addition, CDBG regulations require that activities selected for funding must do one of the following:

- Provide a new or an expanded service level of an existing public service.
- Eliminate conditions detrimental to health, safety, and public welfare.
- Stimulate economic growth, development, and employment opportunities that will principally benefit LMI persons.
- Support fair housing through education, counseling, legal assistance, and consumer protection programs.

CDBG Ineligible Activities

Certain types of activities are ineligible for assistance from the CDBG funds. The following types of activities generally are ineligible:

- Construction or improvements to; general government buildings and schools;
- Routine operation, maintenance, and repair activities for public facilities and,
- Assistance to churches or church-affiliated organizations unless a clear separation of purpose, mission, and organizational relationship can be established between the church and the CDBG-funded activities.

C. City Priorities for Public Service Grants

The City of Green Bay receives many more applications for CDBG Public Service Grants than there are funds available. The competition is greatest among applicants requesting funds for staff and operating costs associated with providing services to some of our most vulnerable residents: the elderly, children and youth, recent immigrants, the homeless, people with mental and physical disabilities, and victims of violence. In addition to the Federal requirements, the City of Green Bay has developed priorities to guide its use of CDBG funds. These policies and priorities are based on federal requirements for the CDBG programs and local needs and funding priorities.

Priorities

Funding priority will be given to activities that:

- provide a wide range of quality services,
- have a high benefit to low-income persons;
- maximize the use of outside funds or leveraging (non-CDBG or other City funds) and services and which are coordinated with other public and private efforts;
- are clearly defined as to scope, location, need, budget, goals, and means for evaluation of program progress;
- help people with special needs achieve better access to and use of existing services;
- demonstrate the capacity of the applicant, and the capability to be carried out successfully;
- have clearly stated goals and evaluation criteria that are specific, measurable, and realistic;
- support or coordinate with other community development efforts;
- comply with the City's current Consolidated Plan;
- present a reasonable, sound budget;

- And/or are to be implemented by organization (s) with a solid track record.

In addition, because the demand for these funds exceeds the amount received from HUD, timeliness is very important. The City is committed to funding projects that are ready to proceed immediately after the funding period begins and those prepared to spend the funds within a twelve-month period (any funds that are not spent within this timeframe may be recaptured by the City.) Also, the City retains the right to review any funded activities at a six (6) month interval to determine if the Subrecipient is likely to expend the awarded funds by the end of the funded cycle.

D. Redevelopment Authority of the City of Green Bay

Deciding who should receive funding is a difficult and time-consuming process. To guide this effort, the Funding Administration Subcommittee of the Redevelopment Authority along with staff, review applications and meet with eligible applicants to discuss funding requests. The Funding Administration Subcommittee recommends to the Redevelopment Authority which organizations should receive funding to include award amounts.

The City's priorities, as described above, guide the Funding Administration Subcommittee in its application review.

E. Application Review and Recommendations

Applications for grants will be accepted from November 10, 2016 to December 16, 2016, at 4:30 p.m. Projects submitted after the deadline will not be considered for review unless it can be demonstrated that the application is for funding of an emergency nature or represents a unique, one-time opportunity that cannot wait for the next round of applications. These out-of-cycle requests will be reviewed at the discretion of the Director and the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Green Bay.

To be considered, all applications must meet one of the three national objectives of the CDBG program (as described above). All applications are reviewed by the staff to determine eligibility under HUD's criteria and conformance with the City's CDBG funding policies and priorities. All applications accepted for competition are then reviewed by the Funding Administration Subcommittee of the Redevelopment Authority.

After discussion and consultation through the review process, applications will be recommended for funding to the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Green Bay who then makes the final award of CDBG funds. CDBG funds cannot be used to reimburse activities performed before the start date of the agreement. A written agreement is required to be signed before any funds may be spent.

F. Contractual Requirements

Each grantee selected to receive funds is required to sign an agreement with the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Green Bay. No costs incurred prior to the execution of an agreement with the City are reimbursable. Under City and Federal laws and regulations, applicants must demonstrate that they are a private nonprofit organization or a governmental agency by presenting a current 501(c)

(3) designation. That certification must reflect the name of the organization to which the award is made.

After an application is approved for funding, an agreement will be prepared and sent by the Redevelopment Authority of the City of Green Bay to the person identified by the applicant as the authorized official for signature. The agreement will specify the amount of the award, the period for which the project is approved, the contract term, and administrative provisions. Special conditions attached to the award, if any, will be specified in the agreement. Grantees will be required to file reports on expenditures, progress toward goals, and beneficiaries. Reports are required for the entire term (generally one year) of the contract, regardless of the timing of reimbursement schedules. Staff will provide forms for these reports.

Recipients are required to obtain insurance as specified by the City of Green Bay, and to comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, codes, and regulations. The cost of insurance is reimbursable as a project expense.

As part of any grant agreement, recipients will be required to comply with affirmative action and equal opportunity laws. In the event of non-compliance, the agreement may be terminated or suspended in whole or in part.

All recipients will be required to comply with the federal government's audit requirements as described in OMB Circular A-133 (for HUD's programs, these requirements are codified at 24CFR Part 84.) If an audit is required, the cost of an audit is an eligible grant cost.

All recipients are required to have a DUN and EIN's number.

G. Other Important Considerations for Applicants

CDBG funds are not intended to be an on-going source of funds for an organization. Rather, these funds are to assist in building the Subrecipient's capacity to apply for other funding, either public or private. Therefore, under the CDBG Public Service Grant program, an organization may only receive funding for up to three times within a five year period. However, there is no guarantee that approved projects will receive funding in years two and three; in addition, for those organizations that are successful in receiving continuing funds, the amount of funds awarded may be reduced from the previous years' amounts. Finally, please be aware that even if an application is successful, the Funding Administration Subcommittee may recommend that the applicant be awarded a lower level of funding than was requested. Applicants should develop a contingency plan to account for a smaller CDBG award.

The RDA is required to monitor activities funded with CDBG funds. The City's primary mission in this regard is to:

- make sure Subrecipients comply with all regulations governing administrative, financial, and programmatic operations; and

- make sure Subrecipients achieve performance objectives on schedule and within budget. To that end, Subrecipients must provide the monthly reports to the end of the program year, regardless of the expenditure of grant funds.

Evaluation results or the success in meeting goals and objectives measures will be key determinants when considering renewal of funding for subsequent CDBG funding cycles.

Agencies must have a local board of directors or advisory board that governs the agency. The board must be of sufficient size to be representative of the diversity of the community served.

The minimum grant amount that may be requested for FY 2017 is $5,000.

Any funds awarded will be available after the City of Green Bay receives its 2017 Entitlement Allocation from HUD. The application deadline is December 16, 2016, at 4:30 p.m. An original and one (1) complete copy (including attachments) of your application must be submitted to:
